

nesses had disappeared in the Sadler case were denied.

"They are all being watched night and day. They won't get away," was the statement of one official.

Developments during the day indicated it is improbable a special grand jury will be called to handle liquor cases exclusively. A few days ago District Attorney Clyne declared to newspaper men that he would request a special grand jury. Yesterday Judge Landis stated he would issue the call immediately upon request by Mr. Clyne. Last night the district attorney issued a statement denying he contemplated this action.

Whole Inquiry at Climax.

No information could be gleaned from Mr. Kilcourse or from Frank D. Richardson, chief special intelligence officer, as to the progress of the inquiry. Mr. Richardson admitted Sadler had made a confession, but refused to comment further.

Summed up, the whole matter local was at a climax last night. Today was expected to tell the story of whether the "whisky lid" will be "ripped off" or a soft pedal placed on the inquiry while a whitewash brush is applied.

Discovery that a permit had been stolen from the office of State Prohibition Director Stone, allowing 1,000 cases of whisky to come to Chicago from Peoria, was made yesterday. The permit was forged. It is expected those implicated will be arrested soon.

Investigation of the activities of certain prominent New Yorkers has been ordered by Prohibition Supervisor Frank L. Boyd of New York as the result of the Sadler confession.

Among his allegations Sadler said he came to Chicago with letters of introduction from Internal Revenue Collector "Big Bill" Edwards. This was emphatically denied by Mr. Edwards.

"I never heard of the man," he said. "If he has any letters signed with my name, they are rank forgeries."

New York agents have confiscated a large number of counterfeit revenue stamp labels for a well known brand of whisky in a search for the alleged ring leaders in the whisky combine.

Prohibition Commissioner Kramer in Washington denied a report he had issued a sweeping order directing all regional prohibition enforcement officials of the power to issue liquor withdrawal permits.

ARREST AID OF MAJOR

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 13.—John E. Fillon, federal prohibition agent working under Group Chief Leo J. Grove, who made the liquor seizures that resulted in the "rum rebellion" at Iron River early in the year, was arrested today on a federal warrant charging malfeasance in office and the illegal transportation of whisky. He was released under $2,000 bonds.

Fillon's arrest followed statements said to have been made by Anton Varda of Hurley, Wis., that Fillon was one of forty-four whisky runners who recently attempted to smuggle liquor into Hurley from Milwaukee with twenty-two automobiles, five of which were captured.

Varda, whose companion, John Mitchell, was killed in an attempt to evade capture by Grove's men, charges Fillon "double-crossed" the whisky runners by leading them into an ambush of federal agents.

Major A. V. Dalrymple has sent John A. Logan to Marquette to conduct an investigation.

ASKS HYLAN TO TESTIFY

New York, Oct. 13.—[Special.]—Mayor Hylan was invited today by United States Attorney Leroy W. Rose of Brooklyn, to appear before the federal grand jury Friday and tell what he knows of the dinner on Oct. 2, in celebration of the closing of "Vile Figue's Inn, Sheepshead Bay, at which the presence of the mayor was disclosed by J. C. Dushchack, reporter for the Philadelphia Public Ledger, in answer to a challenge from his honor demanding proof of police connivance at violations of the prohibition laws."

A similar invitation was extended to District Attorney Harry E. Lewis of King's county, who also was present at the dinner, and who admitted that he had seen bottles emptied of contents, the nature of which easily might be assumed.

VEIL OF SILENCE DROPS ON MANILA JONES LAW TALK

Filipinos See Hand of Japan at Cord.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] (Copyright, 1930: By The Chicago Tribune.) MANILA, Oct. 13.—Strong suspicion that Japan and Great Britain have been behind opposition to application of the new coastwise shipping law has not been confirmed in any responsible quarters here, but the rumor persists, nevertheless.

When the Jones law was passed Japanese and British shipping interests in the Philippines set up a vigorous howl. This was followed almost immediately by strong propaganda from the Nationalist party, which called a convention at Manila to lodge a formal protest and it set on foot a campaign of vast proportions which reached every municipality in the archipelago.

Landslide of Protests. Since then resolutions protesting the law have been coming at a lively rate and all seem to indicate a common origin. It was held the Japanese and British were behind this propaganda, although their official representatives denied it.

It is easy to see why Japan opposes enforcement of the Jones law. Regarding their opposition with a broad view it is easily seen that a blow at America's infant merchant marine now would equal a dozen blows a few years hence when America has become a power in Pacific commerce.

Japan Needs Coastal Trade. A close up view indicates that Japan is suffering a severe industrial depression and many of her cargo carriers are laid up in home ports.

Japan plays no small part in the interisland trade in the Philippines, having many small vessels so engaged. In addition her ships plying between Japanese and Australian ports pick up easy money by taking freight from Manila to way ports such as Zamboanga, Cebu, and Iloilo, and vice versa. This traffic is closed to Japan under the Jones law, hence their desire to employ every possible means to defeat the act.

A Strange Silence. Suddenly, however, all outspoken opposition to the act has been silenced. Japanese spokesmen for the Independence party abruptly changed their front, their reason being that President Wilson had not proclaimed the act yet. There was strong intimation that word to call off the fight came from diplomatic quarters in Japan.

Japanese Trade Expansion. Later news practically assured them of a Republican victory and word mysteriously was brought that diplomatic channels would be invoked to prevent operation of the law. This, it is believed, led to the policy of discreet silence and the subject became taboo in the native press.

Japan has been steadily increasing its grip on that Philippine trade not controlled by America. That is especially true of coal trade, in which the Japanese have a virtual monopoly. Japanese coal, of course, comes only in Japanese bottoms, and its only competition is Australian coal, which Japanese shipping interests control through extensive contracts in New South Wales. Thus Japan dictates the price of coal in the Philippines.

Bremen as Rhine "Seaport"

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] BERLIN.—Germany's most important industrial centers on the Rhine and in Westphalia are forced to depend upon foreign ports, such as Antwerp and Amsterdam, if they wish to ship their products down the Rhine. This new canal system has been decided upon instead of the Rhine to the Ems project of 1914, the latter having been cast aside because of greater technical difficulties.

ASQUITH WILL CHAMPION ERIN IN PARLIAMENT

To Fire Opening Gun Next Saturday.

The crown will be generously treated. The police force is growing by hundreds weekly and it necessary we will swell this to thousands to crush the movement not of the Sinn Fein but of the inner circle of assassins with whose crimes no civilized country in the world is sympathizing.

EXPLOSION KILLS FIVE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] DUBLIN, Oct. 13.—Numerous acts of violence were reported today. Five young men were killed and five wounded today in an explosion in a house at St. Kearns, County Wexford.

Ninety Sinn Feiners attacked the police barracks at Dunmanway, County Cork, early yesterday morning, but were compelled to retire with casualties. Constable Cahill was wounded.

James Mahoney was shot dead in Skibberen. His assassin escaped. An attempt to shoot a sentry at Ireland's principal fort in Phoenix Park Tuesday was followed by the arrest of a civilian today.

Masked men held up a train at Colby, appropriated some official correspondence, and wounded a number of passengers and railway men.

May Shut Down Railways. Irish railway directors after a conference with Sir Eric Geddes and Sir Hamar Greenwood have signed an agreement which may mean the entire closing down of Irish railways within a month and the institution of a rigid blockade of the interior.

The trouble lies in the fact that the numerous small parties of troops present themselves for conveyance and the railway workers, already pledged to refuse assistance to armed forces, will not operate trains carrying soldiers. The directors have agreed on the instant dismissal of these men.

Farmers Would Suffer. The railways' staffs are already being seriously depleted by the previous operation of this policy. It is generally estimated that if the government is active in moving troops there will be no engineers, conductors, or signallers left in the company's service in three or four weeks.

With the cessation of railway traffic every farmer and trader would suffer heavy financial loss and the interior towns would be cut off from their normal supplies.

The chief secretary of Ireland issued a warning that unless the rats on the mails and the interruptions of telegraph service ceased the entire system would be withdrawn from a wide area. It is expected that the cessation of the postal and telegraph service will come simultaneously with the suspension of the railways. These plans constitute the heaviest blow struck at Ireland and they threaten widespread distress. Both measures have been forecast in THE TRIBUNE.

NO VERIFICATION OF A MONARCHY COUP IN CHINA

Yank Ships at Shanghai Fail to Send News.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 13.—[By the Associated Press.]—Gen. Chang Tso-Lin, governor of Fengtien, has overthrown the Peking government and proclaimed a monarchy, according to a rumor here.

This rumor has not been authenticated, and no details have been received, but Chinese officials have been stirred by it.

Gen. Chang Tso-Lin probably was the strongest military leader during the recent conflict between the Chi-Li and Anfu parties. He played a leading part during that trouble and was accused of being a tool of the Japanese.

Coup for Ex-Emperor.

It is the supposition here that the coup, if it really has taken place, is an effort to restore to the throne former Emperor Hsuan-Tung, son of Prince Chun.

Three American warships, the cruiser Huron and the light cruisers Albany and New Orleans, arrived here yesterday. On board the Huron, the fleet ship, was Rear Admiral Albert Gleaves, commander of the American Asiatic fleet.

In connection with the lack of authentication of the Shanghai rumor of the Peking overturn, a message was received from the Associated Press correspondent in Peking dated Oct. 12, but it contained no hint of any governmental complications. This afternoon a still later dispatch contained no mention of any unusual happenings in Peking.

WORK OF CONSORTIUM.

New York, Oct. 13.—Plans of the international consortium for the economic advancement of China were discussed here today.

The consortium has gone on record as welcoming the cooperation of local Chinese capital, said a statement issued by the conferees tonight.

This cooperation would be in the work of the consortium in "development of Chinese public enterprises, building of railways, etc."

SINN FEINERS TRYING TO BUY SUBMARINES

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] (Copyright, 1930: By The Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, Oct. 13.—Sinn Fein representatives are anxious to purchase submarines for the Irish navy and are reported to be making offers to the Italian government for a former Austrian submarine and to be attempting to negotiate with the French for former German U-boats.

Under the interrelated naval agreement reached at the peace conference the British tied up all other powers against disposing of former enemy warships by agreement not to sell them and to destroy all such craft beyond a certain number.

The Sinn Feiners were told everywhere that the selling of a submarine to the Irish "republic" would be considered by Great Britain as an act of war.

Claim Woman's Death Due to Push by a Detective

At the request of relatives, an inquiry is being made into the death of Mrs. Josephine Gioello, 322 Milton avenue, who died three days ago at the Park Avenue hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Rose Gioello, and a brother, John, claim her death was due to a fall down stairs when she was pushed by Detective Sergeant David Boltano of the East Chicago avenue station. Boltano and Detective Sergeant James McLaughlin had gone to the house to arrest the woman's husband, Sam, on a charge of carrying a gun. Mrs. Gioello is said to have attempted to prevent the arrest. The relatives maintain Boltano then shoved her aside and she fell.

G. O. P. LEADERS PREDICT 300,000 ILLINOIS VICTORY

Claim All State Ticket
Will Be Elected.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.
Illinois is officially claimed as sure Republican by a plurality of at least 300,000. This goes for the entire ticket, Harding, Coolidge, McKinley, and Small and candidates for minor state offices. Every sitting Republican congressman is to be re-elected, and prospects are good that the Republicans will annex two and possibly three seats in the national house of representatives now held by Democrats. The Illinois legislature will be heavily Republican in both branches.

The foregoing is the view of the Republican state committee as the active campaign goes into high speed. It was voiced yesterday by Judge Adam Cliffe, state committee chairman from Gov. Lowden's district, who heads the organization division.

"The number of former Democrats who will support the Republican nominees will amaze even the most optimistic Republican leaders," Judge Cliffe said. "Although there was a hard primary fight, most of the bitterness has disappeared and both men's and women's county organizations report that Republicans and in many cases Democrats, are lining up for the entire Republican ticket."

The atmosphere at Republican state headquarters at the Great Northern hotel is entirely optimistic. Working goes out that the primary factions are working together for the success of all primary nominees. It also is evident that the national committee is nurturing this apparent harmony to the fullest extent.

William B. McKinley, nominee for United States senator, and Len Small, nominee for governor, have been invited to travel across Illinois Saturday with Senator Harding, who is to make a dozen speeches in Egypt between Terre Haute and St. Louis. This development was held to be particularly significant of Republican harmony.

The state campaign is to be formally inaugurated by the Republicans tomorrow night at Bloomington. All state candidates are to be present, and Mr. McKinley and Mr. Small will go Schedule beginning Monday morning 100 Talks ing. Automobile tying Each Day. squadrons will start in each of the fifteen down-state congressional districts, covering each county. The special train carrying the state candidates over an eight day itinerary departs from Chicago Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

The night rallies that will be covered by the special train are as follows: Monday, Springfield; Tuesday, East St. Louis; Wednesday, Mount Vernon; Thursday, Danville; Friday, Quincy; Saturday, Streator, where the party remains over Sunday; Monday, Rockford; Tuesday, Aurora. The Chicago campaign in the meantime is expected to be in full swing, through a harmony arrangement between the two factions.

Today's noon mass meeting at the Colonial theater, under the auspices of the women's division of the ways and means committee of the Republican national committee, will see a notable array of theatrical stars, who will participate in the program in behalf of Harding and Coolidge.

DAILEY CHARGES 25,000 'DUMMIES' ARE REGISTERED

Democrats' Head Claims
Fraud in Lists.

Charges that upwards of 25,000 names were fraudulently placed on the poll books by gangs of "repeaters" who traveled through the city in autos were made yesterday by Democratic campaign managers. They accused the Thompson-Lundin organization of being responsible for the frauds and announced that steps would be taken to investigate and punish them.

"There was a systematic attempt at fraudulent registration yesterday," said Chairman James M. Dailey of the managing committee of the Democratic party of Cook county. "In wards in the Black Belt and in other gangs traveled from precinct to precinct in autos, registering in each precinct under names which were given them by persons evidently familiar with conditions in precincts in which they registered."

"I have every reason to believe that at least 25,000 names placed on the poll books are those of 'dummies' and that it is the plan of the Thompson-Lundin organization to cast votes for their state and county candidates under these names."

Organize to Aid Democrats. Republicans, former Progressives, and independents yesterday launched a revolt against the Thompson-Lundin county ticket with the avowed purpose of electing the Democratic candidates for state's attorney, county judge, and sanitary district trustees.

In an appeal to the voters it is set forth: "No national issues are involved here, only the matter of honest elections, public protection against political graft, taxpayers' defense against bond issues on which they have no vote."

Particular emphasis is placed in the appeal upon the danger of the election machinery falling into the hands of the Thompson-Lundin organization, and voters are urged to support Francis X. Busch, Democratic nominee for county judge. Support for Michael L. Igoe, Democratic nominee for state's attorney, and Patrick J. Carr, Michael Rosenberg, and Thomas M. Sullivan, Democratic candidates for sanitary district trustees, is also urged. The rebels organized the Independent ent Republican county committee, of which John S. Miller Jr. was elected chairman and Harriet Vittum secretary.

Members of the Committee.

Names were made public are: Shailer Matthews, Mrs. Charles Warr, Harold Jones, Edwin E. Cassia, Dr. H. W. Cheney, Harold F. White, Kellogg Fairbank, Frederic B. Johnston, Charles E. Merriam, Shelby M. Singleton, George I. Halght, Preston Kummer, Myron E. Adams, Donald B. Richberg, William B. Moulton, Walter Clyde Jones, Samuel Haller, J. L. Hougheling, Horace K. Tenney, Laird Bell, Robert B. Ennis, A. A. Sprague, Roger Sherman, John T. Richards, F. W. Burlingham, Joseph Cummins, Mrs. T. C. Hawkins, Fred Curtis, Mrs. Gertrude Howe Bartlett, Mrs. Florence D. Britton, Mrs. August Babia, Mrs. John V. Farwell, Mrs. Robert L. McCall, Mrs. Carl Mayer, Mrs. James W. Morrison, Mrs. Edward Swift, Mrs. Augustus Peabody, Mrs. J. Higginbotham, Mrs. Harry Hart.

Sheridan Issues Statement. Michael K. Sheridan, Democratic candidate for member of the board of review, issued a statement in which he called the attention of taxpayers to the danger of allowing the board of review to pass into the control of the Thompson-Lundin organization.

"A deficit of $10,000,000 confronts the taxpayers who are now groaning under increased rental costs and high taxes," he said. "Can we not expect a continuation of these conditions if the Thompson-Lundin machine gains control of the county offices, and especially of the taxing bodies?"

Resolutions assailing the administration of Joseph F. Haas as recorder because of his neglect of the Torrens system have been adopted by the Cook county real estate board and members of the board are urging the election of Timothy J. Crowe, Democratic candidate for recorder.

In an attempt to disqualify Adelbert H. Roberts, colored, Republican nominee from the Third senatorial district, State's Attorney MacLay Hoyne filed a petition in quo warranto in the Superior court. It is contended Roberts was a clerk in the Municipal court and ineligible under the law.

WILSON FOREIGN POLICY PILLORIED BY M'CORMICK

Senator Medill McCormick last night issued an attack on President Wilson's "nullification" record in discussing the drive now being made to disrupt the shipping board. Mr. McCormick said:

"The president's nullification of the Jones act, now coupled with his failure to appoint the members of the shipping board as provided by that act, throws a high light upon the administration's unreadiness to protect our foreign commerce and our overseas interests, wherever they may be."

"As Col. Roosevelt long ago pointed out, the foreign policy of the administration has been one of the 'settles.' Dr. Wilson secured the repeal of the Panama canal differential in favor of American shipping in order to buy the good offices of the British foreign office in dealing with the Japanese. His policy in Mexico resulted in the murder of 600 American men and unpeppable outrage upon scores of American women. It brought ruin to Mexico and to American trade in Mexico."

"During the war the president, through the Lansing-Ishii agreement, gave public and formal approval to the economic domination of Japan in the eastern Pacific, as after the war, in the case of Shantung and the Caroline Islands to the Japanese, he confirmed them in that domination. The island of Yap, the cable junction of the Pacific, has been ceded to Japan by the president's decision—with what detriment to our business in the Orient every American exporter to eastern Asia knows."

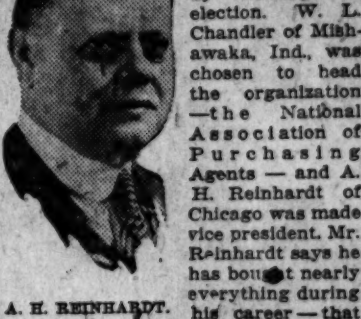

"The state department watched the British preemption of oil claims in Central and South America with as complete indifference as it watched the British and French interests exclude American prospectors from the oil fields in central Asia."

"A Republican administration will seek trade and commerce throughout the world and will defend American commerce and trade throughout the world."

BUYERS SELECT REINHARDT AS VICE PRESIDENT

The purchasing agents—the men who do the buying for big firms—wound up their convention in Chicago yesterday by holding an election. W. L. Chandler of Mishawaka, Ind., was chosen to head the organization—the National Association of Purchasing Agents—and A. H. Reinhardt of Chicago was made vice president. Mr. Reinhardt says he has bought nearly everything during his career—that is, nearly everything but votes.

Beware of Tender Gums

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound, keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

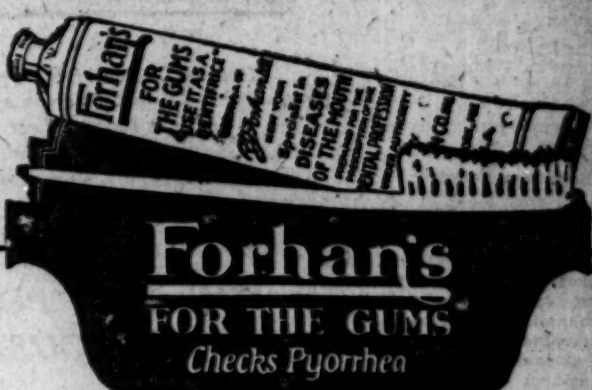

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

BY ARTHUR SEAR

Indianapolis, Ind. (Col.)—Political prognosticators are predicting anything more uncertain weather it is politics—a pivotal state of the election. Thus predicting my result, I boldly opine that Coolidge will carry Indiana. Perhaps not by the ally promised by the Rogers, but by $6,000, if a sensible expectation of Gov. Cox is going to put in Indiana than in any state in the Lake Michigan region, not well enough to lose electoral vote, in my opinion.

Expect Much Success. Normally, neither party any great numerical advantage in Indiana. This fair to be a deal more than usual, but the Indiana Democrats will see this source than the Rogers is going to recruit thousands of Republicans who are in favor of the accepting the presidential nomination. There is much more prominent noticeable in Indiana other states of the great that all but two of the Republican newspapers have supported the co with or without reservation. The women also particularly active in contest Wilson covenant.

Not a Unit on I. On the other hand to party in the state is the league of the Democrats of Irish, German extraction, notably, Jeffersonian reservation Indiana, as elsewhere, a Democratic stronghold. A large proportion of native emigrants who intend to vote on the league issue.

The Democrats are better and better financed in the league of the Democrats, spent four years perfecting organization. They little, if any, financial as the impoverished Democratic committee, but they have a "ticket," including for senator, Lieut. Col. Loch for governor, and Foster of Fort Wayne for governor, while Chairman the state committee is a there is plenty of campaign.

Just Like a "Hoss." The contest between Jim Tom Taggart for the "hoss race." It is a for sure that Watson will run behind Harding, and it is no one if Taggart should Cox. If the Republicans by a fairly large plurality, ally will be elected. If the margin is small Watson Four years ago, when H. the state by 7,000. Watson behind, but beat Taggart the Democratic boss run behind Wilson.

Watson is being bitter organized labor, which is the scalp of every Indian

WHAT THE COVENANT "LETS US IN FOR"

ARTICLE 10.
COVENANT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any such aggression, or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression, the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

IN A NUTSHELL.

The best summary of the positions of the opposing presidential candidates on the league of nations is the following by Mr. George Wharton Pepper in a letter to the Weekly Review:

"Senator Harding, in effect, says to his countrymen: 'We are deeply interested in preventing world conflagrations, not only for our own sake but for the sake of the more immediate sufferers. Let us therefore try to reach the causes of combustion. Let us assemble all parties in conference and work out principles of fire prevention and persuade the careless to be careful. But do not let us make the mistake of underwriting a blanket policy to insure the world against fire. Glad as we are to put our resources at the service of our neighbors, yet when we know that they can burn dollars faster than we can earn them our most humane course is to reserve our right to decide whom we shall help and whom we cannot.' As against these words of wisdom and charity Candidate Cox can merely repeat President Wilson's familiar advice: 'Join the mutual insurance company and sign the blanket policy. By so doing the United States will get the credit of being a first class philanthropist and will really incur no risk; because if a fire breaks out and a loss occurs, congress can easily refuse to appropriate our share.'"

Add to this Mr. Taft's reminder that Cox, even if he were elected, could not put the covenant over without amendment, which, according to Mr. Wilson, would destroy it, and the voter will have all he needs to know on this issue. That disposed of, he will be free to think over some home problems and decide whether he wants any more of what he has been getting for seven years.

CONSTRUCTIVE AMERICA: THE DAIRY SHOW.

"I am glad to get away from the speeches," said Senator Fairchild in 1848 turning from the politics of the Mexican war, "and get back to cows and pigs."

Quite a few of us feel somewhat like that in this year of grace, seventy-two years later. The speeches are here and also the cows—if not the pigs.

Go to the great dairy exposition at Dexter Pavilion, the stockyards, if you want a real American, a real mid-western inspiration. We are not among those elevated individuals who scorn politics, political thought, action or emotion. But if you want to get down to brass tacks, go to a great demonstration of constructive thought and effort like the Dairy Show and you will feel better than any oratory can make you feel about this good land of ours, the upstanding people that make it good, and the future before us all. Clouds are dark enough over us, but our feet are on solid ground here in America. We argue and hesitate, we doubt and disagree over this theory and that, but meanwhile the industry, the intelligence, the science, the forthrightness of the American people are building the solid greatness of the nation.

Go to the Dairy Show and see what applied science can accomplish in the perfecting of animal life and its products. It will help you to know what America is and what the west is. Chicago is the center of one of the greatest dairying regions of the world, one of the most progressive and useful of human industries, producing some of the most essential and valuable factors of civilized diet. You will see the competition of public and private agencies, of the federal and state governments, the state universities, the great associations of breeders and dairymen, in the advancement of the industry. You will learn what the dairy means to agriculture and what it means to you and your children. You will learn a lot that will surprise and interest you and you will see in many beautiful examples what science has done for the perfection of dairy cattle.

The Dairy Show is the drama of a great movement which represents the intelligence—directed energy of hundreds of thousands of solid Americans. It is an illustration of the really constructive forces of America at work for the substantial progress and prosperity of humankind.

It is an honor to Chicago to have this exhibition nearby and a privilege to its people of which more of them ought to take advantage.

NON, NON, GEORGES.

For the benefit of such readers as may rely entirely upon this department for their sporting intelligence, it is to be noted that note ami Georges is, as it were, sur la route, or in other words, on his way. By separating Mr. Levinsky from the light heavyweight championship it is generally conceded that Mr. Carpenter has justified his ambition to bring his lower maxillary within reach of Mr. Jack Dempsey's anaesthetic right.

Reviewing the reports of Mr. Levinsky's experience and checking up for the sake of comparison on that of late Mr. William Mike at Benton Harbor, we would only say that we are glad Mr. Carpenter remained in Franco. Mr. Levinsky, who has tested both Mr. Dempsey and Mr. Carpenter, asserts that the latter hits a harder blow, but time flies and memory softens even the punches of Jack. As Mr. Mike said after he came to, Jack has changed. We admire Mr. Carpenter for his aspirations, but we must classify him along with Ajax defying the lightning. As we have tried before to impress upon the engaging Georges, for whom we have both affectionate regard and respect, Mr. Dempsey is not a prize fighter so much as a primordial force. If Georges insists upon competing with him he ought to train, not by politely beating up Levinsky and such, but by boxing with a Corliss engine or knocking the Century off the track.

What we're trying to prevent is having that famous saying of Franco-American friendship, "Lafayette, we are here," canceled by Ami Georges, who is going to say, very soon after he meets Mr. Dempsey in action: "Lafayette (or something else), where am I?"

"PROFLIGATE WASTE": 1912-1920.

One of the advantages the Democrats have in this campaign is the aid of the army of federal office holders who owe their jobs not to service but to favor. How many these individuals are it would take a long and costly investigation to learn, but no one who was in Washington during the war and especially the armistice period will doubt they run into hundreds of thousands.

When the armistice was signed there were 117,454 employees in Washington. Thousands of them kept short hours and did little or nothing in them. The scandal was rank, but it was not abated. In the ordinance bureau alone it is asserted that there were more employees than Great Britain had for her entire naval and military forces.

Eight months after the armistice the number of federal employees in Washington was 100,614, a shrinkage of only 17,000, and seven months later it was 100,310, a reduction of 504 in that period. Outside of Washington the government employees, when Mr. Wilson's administration began in 1913, were 390,563. One year after the actual end of the war they were 750,110, or nearly double.

We heard a good deal of the dollar-a-year men, but nothing of Mr. McAdoo's staff in the railroad administration, six men at $50,000 a year, two at $40,000, three at $35,000, two at $30,000, ten at $25,000, nine at $20,000, etc., etc. Some of these were expert railroad men and doubtless worth the money. Others were deserving Democrats.

There are a lot of people in this country that ought to be grateful enough to the administration to hustle for Cox. But how about those of us who pay the check and will keep on paying for some time?

The Democrats' platform of 1912 contained the following:

"We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriation of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil." Even if that were 100% justified, the Wilson administration has made the "profligate waste" of that charge look like an ant hill.

"KEEPING OUT OF WAR."

What was the league of nations created for? In the hopes of idealists to guarantee the peace of the world, to do justice to weak people, to disarm and to substitute law for violence. In the knowledge of realists, to consolidate the territorial gains of the dominant nations of Europe, to disperse their enemies, and weaken them for generations, if not forever, and to hold the power which the war gave them and the resources all over the world which were taken after victory.

Japan entered the new era by taking Shantung, a Chinese province of nearly 40,000,000 inhabitants, all rebellious against Japanese rule. If the United States had demanded dominion over 40,000,000 Canadians the affair could have been no worse. The only reason there is not a war of arms now between China and Japan is because the Chinese know that they have not an army which could fight the Japanese army. They are fighting with the boycott. That is the best they can do now. If they ever can do more they will do it.

If they ever can fight successfully to throw the Japanese out, or if they ever think they can, they will try it. Would the United States be the ally of Japan in this aggression? Under the covenant of the league, yes.

What excuse can be made for the subjection of 40,000,000 protesting, self-governing Chinese to the military, political, and economic rule of the Japanese? Here is an Ireland, ten times more populous, subjected, as the result of a war for liberation, to an England a hundred times more ruthless and determined.

These Chinese were in the war against Germany. They are not good fighters, but they are wonderful workers. France was full of them doing coolie work and releasing fighting men for combat.

What did China do which merited the ripping from her side of a rich province and its transference, in the name of a scheme of altruism, to an expanding imperialism whom the Chinese fear and hate?

The Chinese are not now able in a military sense to protect themselves. Their bitter resentment has been expressed in boycotts, but they, the most pacifist nation in the Pacific league of nations, are the most imposed upon by it.

They are disarmed, as the league of nations proposes to disarm nations. Therefore they are handed over by it as victims. They do not believe in military rule. Therefore they are handed over by the anti-militaristic league of nations to the competent: militarist, Japan.

At the very birth of freedom and universal peace the most pacifist member of the league of nations was offered up to the most militaristic.

Can any advocate of the league of nations assert that these are not the facts? Is not China, the friend of the United States, handed over, under this scheme of freedom, to Japan, the potential enemy of the United States? Is not this done, this provocation of war, in the name of peace, and are we not asked to give it our moral indorsement in the name of universal peace?

Editorial of the Day

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

The investigation of the campaign funds has not brought to the Democratic party the advantage foreseen by Gov. Cox. On the Republican side there was disclosed rather too much seal in obtaining popular subscriptions; but Gov. Cox's charge of a huge slush fund broke down completely. Meanwhile evidence has been presented of certain large single contributions to the Democratic fund, as well as of some propagandist enterprises as the moving picture "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge." It has become pretty clear that Gov. Cox's sensibilities were shocked not so much by the size of the Republican fund as by the slowness with which the Democratic contributions were coming in.

A LINE OF TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the type fall where they may.

"DEMOCRATIC speakers will tell you that the League of Nations does not really mean what it says. If that were so," queries Arthur Brisbane, "why go into it?" The answer, of course, is "Why not?" If we were to keep away from everything that does not really mean what it says, we should jolly well come to a full stop. Mr. Brisbane, for example, does not really mean what he says, but is that a reason for depriving yourself of the pleasure of reading him?

Showing That Man Is a Reasoning Animal.

[N. Y. Tribune.] The Carlson text, although more circumlocutory than the translation of the French text, fully supports Senator Spencer. The only difference between it and the text used by Senator Spencer is microscopic.

LEAGUE or not league, if the world is again at war, the United States will (eventually) put its army and navy in commission. You may call this, with Senator Harding, "knights in service," or you may call it plain necessity and self-defense. Some picture Uncle Sam as a Lancelot with lance in rest, and some as a shopkeeper with pen behind ear. The old boy is a little of one and a good deal of the other.

Meanwhile Let Us Consider "The Beauties of Heaven Through a Telescope."

[By J. F. Allen, of Glasgow, Ky.] It is said the astronomer Homer sang and worshipped these same stars, and every child knows, every thirsty inquiring mind, let us venture into the realm of the velvet blue above what wealth what beauty is in store, see your beautiful evening star one of the most beautiful of the planets how I love gaze upon her she bears me through infantile my imagination soars aloft. I have visited some of nature's wonders of great view, have looked from top of Look-Mountain on bottom of the great Atlantic through Mammoth Cave beneath the thundering Cataract of Niagara Falls which so filled me with wonder and admiration as to make me speechless. But all of these are same compared to the revelations brought to me of the beauties of heaven at night through a telescope.

Correspondence from Japan.

Tokyo, Sept. 10.—Some observers see in the perspective of Japanese paintings, in the shifting light glazes of the color and the mystic, an expression of reputed intricacies of the Eastern mind. But a certain domestic draughtsman from Chicago out-Orients the Orient. Occidental art may do weird things when she is pulsating with abstinence, but fill her up on sake and her subsequent creations will make a Shinto temple look as prosy as an Elkhead county corncrib. Witness the new annex to the Delirium Hotel of Tokyo, where East meets West and neither knows whether he is in White City or Whitechapel. The sleek rooms are a tight symposium of cubes and hexagons, an epidemic of shallow drawers, a sleep of unpainted knobs, an Aurora of burnished copper. The bed is a grassed sarcophagus, flanked by the shining light globes set in a pair of capricious aileron panels, and two electric heaters, fashioned after the lines of a Pullman car spring, depend from the ceiling in just the spot to grill the unsuspecting night prowler on his birthday. The capricious capricious wash basin makes the washee feel that he is usurping the rights of the turnip at a steam-table lunch counter, and the light is directed at such an angle that one can shave himself successfully only between the shoulder blades. As for that tub—with a wreath and a glass lid, one can hear folks say, "How peaceful Alexander looks!"

CONTAGION AND CHILDREN.

THE children who must be protected against all contagion are the babies under 2 years of age. If a child can be carried beyond 2 years of age without contracting contagion, this form is not very likely to die from any form of communicable disease. Contagion is most prevalent among children under school age. It probably is more prevalent among babies under 2 than it is among school children. These are the conclusions of a report made by Dr. George T. Palmer of the Detroit health department.

What Dr. Palmer did was to tabulate the ages of all persons reported to the Detroit health department as having had any form of contagion over a period of years.

His method differed somewhat from the method employed by Hill in Milwaukee, Henderson in London, Ontario, and the superintendent of the rural school of La Crosse county, Wisconsin. What these did was to use the schools to get a complete contagion history of each school child, with forms of contagion he or she had suffered from, and at what age.

Dr. Palmer's study showed one-fifth of all the whooping cough in children 5 to 10 years of age. Since 95 per cent of the whooping cough is in children under 10 years of age, this means that 20 per cent of all the whooping cough in children under 10 years of age is in children 5 to 10 years of age. This is a very high percentage.

GOV. COX CARRIES FIGHT FOR TREATY TO NORTH INDIANA

Keeps Taft for Supporting Senator Harding.

BY ROBERT B. SMITH.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Gov. James M. Cox stumped northern Indiana today advocating the league of nations with his customary vigor, rapping former President Taft for supporting Senator Harding, and seeking to convince voters that they must back the Democratic ticket if they want the treaty ratified.

"At Des Moines," Gov. Cox said, "Senator Harding said: 'Gov. Cox is a member of going into the league. I am a member of staying out.' On the heels of this former President Taft says: 'If Harding is elected, we will go into the league. If Cox is elected we won't go into the league.'"

Says Harding Baffles Taft.
"There is no method of voting for the league or against the league except by voting for or against the candidate for the league," the governor said. "If I should be elected, I should infer that the league would be just the reverse."

"If Mr. Taft says that the way to get our going into the league is to vote for the man who is against it, I understand Judge Taft's discomfiture. His candidate must be sorely trying him. The American people will follow him from one day to another, and the former president is having his troubles also on that score."

Bay Day with Hecklers.
Gov. Cox encountered a good many hecklers today. They showed considerable curiosity about his attitude on many aspects of the league, the war issue, immigration, and other subjects. Once he was asked whether he intended to enforce the eighteenth amendment.

"I most certainly do," the governor said.

A pretty Polish Cinderella, Miss Lottie Kupczik, 9 years old, wants a home. She has a stepmother and four step brothers and sisters, and her father, it is stated, seems to be led in his opinions by his new wife.

Lottie showed a back striped with lashes that her stepmother was accused of administering when she was taken into the Domestic court some time ago. When the suggestion was made that the father sign away the girl for adoption, he quickly complied.

"Lottie was a regular little slave," said Mrs. Katherine Shannon of the child placing department of the Juvenile court and president of St. Catherine's Home for Girls. "She worked and got beaten and had nothing, and she is a good girl and very pretty. She'd make a very lovely daughter for some one who would appreciate such a girl."

Two Life Sentences Imposed on One Man

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Two life sentences were meted out to one man today in the Jackson county Circuit court. Judge James Parkinson sentenced William E. E. Harris, convicted of first degree murder in connection with the killing of Deputy Sheriff Harry Worden, following the robbery of the Grass Lake, Mich., bank last August, to life on that charge and then again to life upon Harris' pleading guilty to the robbery charge.

"UNCLE WARREN" MAKES 'EM YELL IN TENNESSEE

Harding Attack on League Loudly Applauded.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Franchising one people, one price, one purpose, one country, and one flag, Senator Harding entered the southland today on the fighting chance of carrying Tennessee and Kentucky. Tonight, speaking before an audience of 8,000 in the Sunday tabernacle in this city, he pressed his fight against President Wilson and his league, his autocratic administration, calmly ignoring Gov. Cox, titular head of the party.

Every attack on the president and his league was applauded. The biggest demonstration of the evening followed the senator's declaration that the United States could have nothing to do with such a military alliance. "Tell 'em, Uncle Warren," yelled Republicans. "Amen," called others.

Senator Harding said that instead of breaking the heart of the world the senate had broken the heart of the great ambition in the world. Every as surance of his own success in the election was met by delighted yells.

Reckless Is Omitted.

This meeting had been advertised as an opportunity for hecklers and a Democrat had been designated to lead in the disturbances, but nothing of this kind took place, as Democratic newspapers advised against it and Republican leaders gave warning that they had enough mountaineers on hand to take care of any disturber.

In the course of his drive through the streets the senator was met with great courtesy. It was noticed that hundreds of men lifted their hats to him, although there was little cheering.

Senator Harding hit hard and straight from the shoulder. He indicted the president as having come dangerously near to overthrowing the constitution. He denounced the covenant of the league of nations as containing the heart of a military alliance, a thing that the United States cannot accept. He scored Article 10 as a plan to mortgage to the powers of Europe the honor and manhood of America. This was strong language in Tennessee, but Harding was applauded.

Refers to Old Division.

He spent most of the day in touring the battlefields of Chickamauga, Missionary ridge, and Lookout mountain, and in his speech he reverted to civil war as justifying America's opposition to the Wilson league.

"North and south fought," he said, "because the states of the south thought they had a right to withdraw from the union. The north thought they ought to be indissoluble. Then came the enangined conflict over an ambiguity in the constitution. There are a score of ambiguities in the president's covenant, and he would not tolerate their clarification by reservations. One related to withdrawal. The covenant said a nation might withdraw on two years' notice, provided it had fulfilled all its obligations. But it did not say who decided on the fulfillment. We want to decide in American conscience whether we have met our obligations, like a free nation."

Senator Harding hoped the day would come when partisan differences could be buried under new understanding.

"If Republican policies are good for the north," he said, "they deserve the earnest consideration of the south."

The Republican party proclaims the same doctrine of agricultural good fortune in the south that it proclaims in the north. It preaches the same policy of finance. It preaches the same policy of helpful protection to all American production."

STEAL SAFE; SCARED; LEAVE IT.
Four men drove up to a Standard Oil station at Oyster and Albany avenues yesterday, kicked in a window and carried a small safe from the office. As they were attempting to put it into their automobile they were displaced away by Harry M. 1578 South Albany avenue. They had the safe. It contained about $200.

TY'S GAS BILL USED $590,058 EXPERTS' FEES

Sees No Drop Until
All Prices Fall.

The next revision of the price of gas will be downward? Production figures submitted yesterday to the public commission by the Peoples Light and Coke company in the attempt to fix the value of the company's properties indicated that for the present, at least, the price would be lowered.

Statements by Samuel Insull, president of the company, and by James Wilkerson, chairman of the utility commission, indicated a downward revision was not beyond the probable.

Company's Cost Figures.

The company's estimate fixed the cost of producing gas for the period Sept. 1, 1920, to Aug. 31, 1921, at 1.4 thousand cubic feet, without interest charges on debts and without a sinking fund to cover the cost of the plant. This was interpreted by the city's counsel as an increase in the cost of gas.

Insull denied any rate increase is being sought. Mr. Wilkerson pointed out that rates increased by operating costs and the effect of a substantial reduction in operating costs, made possible by reduced prices of materials, on any rate fixed by a public utilities commission is obvious.

So, if prices come down, gas also may come down.

Hi Cost of City's Fight.

Figures made public by George F. Harding, city controller, shows that the entire cost of the gas is not shown on the gas company's bill to the consumer—there's a war tax collected by the city to defray the expense of its crusade against the gas company.

According to Mr. Harding's statement, the city's experts and attorneys in gas litigation have received $590,058.37 in fees since the first suit was started against the gas company in an attempt to obtain 70 cent gas nine years ago.

Miss Mayme Terzo, who has been missing from her home at 8425 West Chicago avenue since Tuesday, is believed to be married and in Detroit. Terzo said the same man called up Tuesday night and told him Miss Terzo was married.

FARMER SHOWS HIS BRIDE BIG TIME; IN CELL

George B. Trullinger of Altamont, Ill., by now wanted to show his bride that he was the real barrier in the way of husbands. He promised her a visit to Chicago and such goings on as would open her eyes.

They came to Chicago yesterday. And what did George do? He summoned a taxi driver, just like that, and said, "Drive us around all day, my good man." The taxicabist, Fred Weiss, of 2244 Douglas boulevard, asked for his money when the cab stopped in Dolton, Ill. George didn't have a red cent. Neither did Mrs. George.

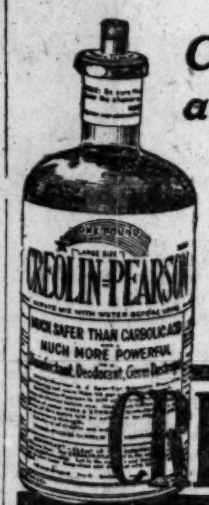

"All right," said Weiss, "all right; get in and I'll take you to a nice cheap hotel."

So he took them to the Maxwell street station. George is held there. His bride—she is only 18 years old—was taken to detention home No. 2, to be cared for until her folks send enough money to pay her fare back home.

distributed to its employees almost one-half its net profits for six months, and gave a two-nights party at the Coliseum during the week, to celebrate the event.

This money was distributed before the dividends were paid on the investment, and before taxes to the government or any other similar necessity were deducted.

These semi-annual parties, at which dividends are distributed to the employees, were started in one of our garages. The following party was given in the form of a picnic. Next we hired the Coliseum Annex and after that the Coliseum proper, which was filled to the doors for two successive evenings.

At this last party we entertained, in the Coliseum, our 3500 employees and 3500 of their guests. We wish, Mr. Citizen and Citizens, who ride in taxi-cabs, that we could have been able to show you these men, their wives and children—how they dressed, how they looked, how they conducted themselves.

We wish you could have heard what they had to say about the Company they own—because they do own a great portion of it. Their unquestioned loyalty would have proved a revelation to you, because you have been accustomed to hearing corporations criticized for their greed.

You never would have known from their conversation that the YELLOW CAB COMPANY is a corporation. You would have thought that it is a great, big, happy family in which there are no jarring elements or internal dissensions.

The employee who drew the most money for the six months period was Driver Harry Skora. His income per week was $62.71 which did not include the many tips you have so kindly given him at times when he gave you extraordinary service.

So you see our men are living well, keeping their families well and laying aside bank accounts for the proverbial rainy days. They are happy, we are happy and neither has any right or reason for feeling dissatisfied with the other. "This a consummation devoutly to be wished." Think what it means to you.

WILD EYED FANS MOB INDIANS IN FRENZY OF JOY

"MAY I NOT?"

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 13.—Manager Tris Speaker of the world's champion Cleveland Indians today received a telegram of congratulation from President Wilson. The telegram was as follows:

"May I not congratulate you on the success of your honest and sincere efforts?"

WOODROW WILSON.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 13.—Cleveland tonight paid tribute to its world champion Indians in a public demonstration. A parade, attended by approximately 50,000, so great was the enthusiasm of the baseball crazy mob that it became uncontrollable and broke through ropes marking off the stage where city officials and the Cleveland players sat, smashed chairs, and several persons into a small crowd and vocally and physically expressed its joy over the winners of the world's series.

Special details of police were powerfully put out until long after the lights had been put out and the ball players had left the celebration end.

Crowds on Hillside.

A follow in the park—a natural theater—was the stage where the players were received by Mayor W. S. Boyd and the players. Long before sundown hundreds of fans began assembling on the hillside. When the players arrived at 7 o'clock the hillside was packed. Great searchlights were turned upon the stage, keeping the ball players in the spotlight, fireworks were set off, bands played, and automobiles for blocks around kept up a continual honking.

Each player, as he was introduced, was a wild demonstration, the roar of enthusiasm being almost continuous. When the last speech was made, Mayor Boyd signed the program and the crowd refused to leave. Instead, it rushed forward through the ropes and hundreds climbed on the stage to shake hands with the athletes. Babies were passed over shoulders to be kissed, hats were smashed and chairs shoved aside, but while the players were somewhat bruised and battered in the rush.

Lights Turned Out.

Stands of police ranged through the mass of people, trying to get it to break up, but without avail. Out for some time after lights were turned out, waiting, the fans refused to leave. Finally the ball players were escorted out the back of the stage, the lights were turned out, and lusty men with megaphones begged every one to go home.

For more than an hour, however, the Clevelanders were convinced everything actually was finished. Then, slowly and, noisily, started home, but it was midnight before the park had been cleared, for the crowded streets and blocked traffic made it impossible to move rapidly.

Full Shares to Mails, Sewell.

The Cleveland players this afternoon gave to Walter Mails and Joe Sewell, recruits who joined the club in the season, full shares in the world series receipts. One hundred dollars each also was given to Secretary Walter McNichols, Scout Al McAllister, Trainer Percy Jones, Groundkeeper Frank Van Dellen, Miss Edna Jamieson, chief clerk of the club. Mrs. Ray Chapman, widow of the player killed by a ball thrown by pitcher Carl Mays of the Yankees, today had been voted a full share. The action of the players reduced the share of each to $3,986.33.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 13.—Figures for this year's world series, given out today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the national commission, show that neither the attendance nor the gate receipts were as great as in last year's contests. They place the 1920 series well toward the top in the records for all years, however. The approximate figures for 1919 and 1920 follow:

Total attendance	178,737	238,928
Total receipts	$564,800	$722,414
National commission's share	$6,480	$7,241
Each club's share	$145,718	$194,911
Players' share (from first five games)	$214,932	$280,340
Winning team's share	$6,697	$11,157
Losing team's share	$6,465	$78,104
Each winning player's share	$4,204	$4,881
Each losing player's share	$2,987	$3,254
Purse for second and third place teams of each league	$3,770	$5,097

Seventeen world series now have been played in modern baseball and the total attendance was $4,311,579. The total receipts were $4,756,335.

PURPLE WORKS OUT IN SECRET

Behind gates open only to a few privileged "N" men the Purple football machine continued yesterday afternoon its steady process of getting ready for the onslaught against the Badgers Saturday.

The scrimmage with the fresh proceeded much better than on Tuesday. Lane and Graunick tore through the yearling wall for large gains. Palmer, toosing the ball with the same accuracy that spelled large gains against Minnesota, executed many clever passes. McDevitt will depend largely upon the aerial attack next Saturday.

As for defense against the passing combinations Richards is reputed to have developed. Lane, Patterson, and Graunick seem already about perfectly schooled in this art.

WABASH WILL BRING OLD TIME FIGHTING TEAM TO CHICAGO

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 13.—Represented by a team that will make up in aggressiveness what it lacks in weight, Wabash, known in football circles as the Little Giants, will journey to Stag field Saturday determined to give Chicago just as hard a fight as the team of 1905, which held the Maroons to a hard earned fifteen points.

It is tradition with Wabash teams to fight to the bitter end. In the fraternity houses and in the training room banners are posted on the walls with the inscription, "Wabash always fights." In the 1905 game the team which represented this little institution which boasts of an attendance of 350 students was fighting just as hard at the finish as when the game started.

Have Mastered Game.

Whether this year's eleven will be as successful against Stag's warriors as the one of 1905 cannot be stated, but the spirit showed in practice today augurs well for their success. Small of stature, but quick and alert as cats, the players know football and have mastered the fundamentals perfectly.

The eleven is being groomed for the fray by Pete Vaughan, who learned his football as a member of the local high school team. After his prep school career he went to Notre Dame and afterward to Princeton, where he was chosen All-American full back. Vaughan is assisted by Karl Huffine, a former player and brother of the former Purdue captain.

Coach Is Optimistic.

The Wabash coach is optimistic over his chances. He asserted today a pleasant surprise is much better than a keen disappointment, and for this reason does not care to comment on his team's chances. However, the eleven is ready, and if it does not make a creditable showing the fault will not lie with the coaches or players.

The Wabash eleven is captained by William Thompson, half back. Although small for the position, he appears to be a fearless player. Burns, a heavier man, will be seen in the other half back position, with Kne in the middle. Weber will direct the attack from the quarter back position. Stansand and Aul will be on the flanks, with Mintz and Brucher at tackles. Dahmly or Bradley will play center, with Kaah and Kessler, two veteran guards, on each side.

Appeals Court Takes Up $264,000 Baseball Suit

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.—The District of Columbia Court of Appeals took under consideration today the appeal of organized baseball from the District Supreme court's decision, awarding the Baltimore Federal league club $264,000 as damages due to disruption of the Federal league. Decision on the appeal is expected early next month.

In the Wake of the News

GEORGES CARPENTIER.

GEORGES CARPENTIER, by his fourth round knockout of Battling Levinsky, draws the spotlight as the logical opponent of Jack Dempsey for the world's title. He has lived up to the advance notices of those who had seen him abroad and had proclaimed him a real fighter. Undoubtedly Georges is a real fighter. Now the question is whether he is the equal of Dempsey. On comparative showings against Levinsky there would seem little to choose. Dempsey has proved his terrific hitting power and prowess many times; Carpentier only once so far in this country. The Wake reluctantly admits an uneasy feeling that Carpentier will share the same fate as Jack's other opponents of recent years. This is not prejudice, for the Frenchman, by his record alone, has earned the respect and regard of every American sportsman. In fact, no foreign fighter ever carried as many good wishes, especially from ex-soldiers, as will Georges when he faces Dempsey.

Perhaps those of us who saw Dempsey so quickly put out Jess Willard and Billy Mike overestimate his chances against a fast, hard hitting chap like Carpentier. Possibly we still underestimate the Frenchman. That is more probable. Certainly in no battle between an invader and a home champion will one feel more like honestly saying, "May the best man win."

"O, Say Not So."

From most every point of the compass, in loud and continual blare, the heavy lunged warriors thump us with eloquent tones of hot air. From Florida clear to Alaska. The echo's one long, verbal flame: But, strangely, from Lincoln, Nebraska, "Not even a whisper has come."

The Wizard of Words has ceased shouting. The Well of Spellbinding's spouting. No longer—no and no my I'm shaken with horror to see that The Tower of Babel is a la: His heart's in the grass and it is that His tongue's in a similar fix.

LANE TECH FOOTBALL STAR BARRED; SCHOOL FORFEITS 2 GAMES

LANE TECH FOOTBALL PROSPECTS WERE DASHED YESTERDAY, WHEN THE CHICAGO PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL LEAGUE OF ATHLETIC CONTROL VOTED. LEFT TACKLE GEORGE BOOKER INELIGIBLE AND FORFEITED LANE'S TWO VICTORIES AGAINST CRANE AND HYDE PARK. THE ACTION WAS TAKEN AT A LIVELY MEETING IN THE OFFICE OF E. C. DE LAPOINTE, SUPERVISOR OF CITY SCHOOL ATHLETICS, AND FOLLOWED THE PRODUCTION OF RECORDS FOR THREE CONSECUTIVE YEARS DURING BOOKER'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL DAYS, WHICH SHOWED HE GAVE THE DATE OF HIS BIRTH AS DEC. 3, 1898.

This would make the 210 pound Lane colored football star nearly 20 years old now, and a rule of the City High School league makes students automatically ineligible on turning 21. In refutation of the charge an affidavit from Booker's mother was shown, made out last autumn for the city bureau of vital statistics, and naming the player's birth date as Dec. 2, 1898. It was shown, however, that this would have had Booker entering the grammar school at 2 years 7 months in order to graduate in 1911, and the vote against Booker followed.

The verdict practically knocks Lane out of the race for the high school title, although the tech team was regarded as one of the two strongest, eleven in the league, Englewood being the other.

THE CAST:

Miss Trowbridge.....Mabel Mattox

By Sam Time.
This picture is not only for the fact that it is the last work of little Olive Thomas.
We are a morbid nation! The other morning when I went over to the State-Lake there was a line half a block long waiting to get into the theater—a line so long and so eager that a policeman was necessary to keep order.

The story is about two children, a boy and a girl, who are saved from a wreck. Because nobody claims them they are taken to the poorhouse, where they are badly treated and finally they run away, accompanied by a pathetic and game old man, who has also had his fill of abuse.

The old man becoming ill, the three approach a stately southern mansion and ask to stay for a time. It develops that the owner of the mansion was the old man's general in the civil war. Later it turns out that he is the grandfather of the boy.

Nobody ever does own Mary, the girl, but the boy loves her and the picture closes leaving you in the charming certainty that she will marry the son of a general and live happily ever after.

Miss Thomas, always a delightful little personality, did not have the opportunity to do her best work in "Everybody's Sweetheart." And certainly it is hard to reconcile the ragged little Mary with the beautiful, reckless, and unhappy Paris suicide.

The supporting cast is good.

FASHIONS BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE.
NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Those days when maidenly shoulder lines drooped as constantly as maidenly lashes have been perpetuated in autumn modes, and many of the new models from abroad show in the most fashionable shops have more than a hint of the Empress Eugenie period. Shoulder lines are certainly inclined to be brought down over the arm in a way that offsets any muscular advantage we may have gained on links or court. In this delightful frock of gray crepe de chine the line of which we have spoken is developed in a coat of gray satin used in connection with plaited gray crepe de chine. The buttons are of rose and silver, and the whole dress is distinctive from a group of little afternoon dresses for autumn modes.

POULTRY FLOORS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

No poultry house is satisfactory unless its floor is dry, rat-proof, and sanitary. Concrete is the best solution.

Permanent floors that last for years may be made with cement, but the work must be done properly. A suitable concrete foundation should first be provided to support the outer edges and to prevent rats from burrowing underneath.

It is necessary to make the floor six to twelve inches above the ground level, depending on the nature of the location. When the soil is heavy or the floor is to be built in a low, damp location, an elevation of twelve inches is advisable, while a sandy gravel may require only a six inch elevation. In all clay soils, where there is danger of water collecting around the poultry house, special attention should be given to the underground drainage.

Proper insulation is essential to dryness. A layer of several inches of gravel, broken stones, or coarse cinders is sufficient, except in especially damp places, where a one-ply tarred paper may be effectively spread on top of the filling, with the concrete laid directly on top of this.

Coarse cinders, such as those produced at factories, may be used for the concrete base, as well as for the insulation.

Your Linoleum floor will be a quiet floor to walk upon and will be warmer and easier to the tread if laid by the new Richardson-Method.

The deadening felt cemented to the floor acts as a cushion, and because of this, is more resilient, restful, and will make the Linoleum wear longer.

By the Richardson-Method of Better Linoleum Laying, the work is completed in one trip, making it unnecessary to again disturb the room.

We sell Armstrong's Linoleum at wholesale and retail, giving you a wide selection of this most durable floor covering.

PRODUCERS SEEK HIGHER PRICE TAG ON THEIR GOODS

'Be Calm,' Reserve Board
Chief Warns.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.—[Special.]—After adopting resolutions severely criticizing government financial authorities and calling on them for assistance to make possible higher prices, agricultural producers today held a two hour conference with W. P. G. Harding, governor of the federal reserve board.

Mr. Harding urged the producers present to keep cool, and expressed the belief there will be a reaction from present low prices. He told them he favored putting their crops on the market gradually. He warned against any attempt to withhold commodities, and pointed to the recent financial panic in Japan and the present Cuban sugar situation as examples of what might follow efforts to boost prices to artificial heights.

May Revise Rediscunt Rates.
That a revision of the rediscunt rates of federal reserve banks may take place this week was intimated by Gov. Harding, who said he could not give a definite answer to a request for lower rates on agricultural paper because the whole matter now is under consideration.

Mr. Harding said that not later than Friday the board expected to make a full announcement of the policies which will govern federal reserve banks for the remainder of the year.

Want $3 Wheat.
Resolutions adopted by the conference prior to the meeting with Gov. Harding urged the justice of asking for $3 wheat and 40 cent cotton.

The delegation of agricultural producers has arranged for a hearing before Secretary of the Treasury Houston tomorrow. They have what they claim is a special grievance against Mr. Houston because of statements by him which they contend have had the effect of causing bankers and the public to believe that prices of agricultural products have been too high.

Decorated Carafes

Thus, these practical containers for hot or cold drinks have been transformed into decidedly handsome pieces of art ware as well. Sets, including the tray, may be had at prices from $10 to $100.

GRAINS BULGE, LED BY WHEAT; SEABOARD BUYS

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Removal of hedges against sales of cash wheat for export resulted in an active and higher market after an early break. Corn was bought freely by strong interests and advanced rapidly. Profit taking made a reaction in all grains and the finish was at net gains of 2 1/2¢ on wheat, 1/2¢ on corn, unchanged to 1/4¢ on barley, 3/4¢ on rye, and 4¢ on oats.

Wheat dropped so early as the result of selling induced by weakness in the northwest on Tuesday, when the Chicago market was closed. Thomson & McKinnon and Logan & Bryan were free buyers of May at $2.05 on resting orders, and checked the down turn. Later the wheat board sent heavy buying orders and a bulge to $2.12 followed. At the top December was 28¢ above the recent low point. Agitation of farmers for higher prices is a factor in all grains and has some effect on local sentiment.

Milling demand showed improvement, but in the main the disposition was to ask for offers, high stocks at Chicago checking sales. Country offerings were reported as small.

Big Trade in Corn.

Heavy buying of May corn by Logan & Bryan, Bennett, and Farnum-Winter, attributed by traders to a leading local interest, widened the December-March spread to 4¢ at one time, the greatest difference so far, and at the last May was 4 1/2¢ over. October closed 2 1/2¢ lower and at a discount of 1/4¢ under the December, getting under the latter delivery for the first time on the crop. Local sentiment was mixed. Eastern demand for cash corn showed improvement, and 100,000 bu were sold for export at the seaboard.

Despite heavy buying of December oats by Lewis, who has been conspicuous on that side for several days, that delivery showed an easy undertone and closed 4¢ under the May, against 4 1/2¢ on Monday. Cash prices showed little change as compared with the December.

Rye showed more strength than other grains, buying of a liberal amount of December by a leading local interest being the main influence. Germany took a few loads at seaboard and local handlers sold 40,000 bu at 25¢ over December; track Baltimore advanced 2¢ over Monday. No. 2 on track was 5¢ over December.

Choice barley advanced 6¢ and other grades 2 1/2¢. Demand was better and offerings were light. Exporters bid $1.05 for 48 lb malting barley track New York, but no sales were reported.

Lard for Export.

Buying of 1,000,000 lbs October lard by Armour from Schwarz against export sales of 1,500,000 lbs of refined lard was a feature in provisions. There was weak selling of January by Gregson and sellers by liquidators. Prices declined early, but reacted and closed around the top at 5¢ lower to 7 1/2¢ higher. Trading in May was on. Business in ribs and pork was light, the former closing 6¢ higher on October and unchanged for January. Prices follow:

Nully.
A. H.—The Nully company was formed early this year to take over a candy business that had shown steadily increasing earnings for some years. The new company issued 100,000 shares of no par value. In 1919 sales were $2,620,616 and net profits before federal taxes $235,138. In the first six months of 1920 sales were $1,301,297 and total net income $200,681. An initial dividend of 50 cents a share was paid on June 1. The balance sheet of Dec. 31 as published in Moody's Manual showed assets of $18.75 a share, $7.70 of which was good will.

American Locomotive.
R. R. F.—The American Locomotive company earned $7.61 a share on its common stock in the six months ended June 30 and $6.81 a share in the preceding year. This is 14 1/2 per cent for the year, which compares with 41 per cent in the year ended June 30, 1919. Earnings are subject to violent fluctuations.

Liquid Carbonic.
O. G. F.—The Liquid Carbonic company is issuing $3,000,000 of ten year notes. They are the only funded debt and the company contracts not to mortgage its property while they are outstanding and to maintain its net current assets equal to at least 125 per cent of all liabilities, including the notes. As it has a long record of good earnings, the notes are an attractive investment for the funds of a business man.
